

Seaglass

Seaglass is a stylish beach hut in South East Cornwall boasting awe-inspiring views which will captivate and delight. Perched on Tregonhawke Cliff and surrounded by enclosed spacious gardens, this eco-friendly cabin overlooking Whitsand Bay is the perfect self-catering hideaway for lovebirds looking for some luxury and romance by the sea.

After a lazy morning enjoying breakfast in bed with your beloved, roll back the bi-fold doors in the living room, breathe in that salty air and take in the 180 degree panoramic views out across the bay. Seaglass occupies an enviable secluded position overlooking Whitsand Bay with completely uninterrupted views to the West, making it feel as though you are both on the edge of the world.

The effortlessly stylish bedroom boasts a king-size bed bedecked in fine linens and cloudsoft pillows to ensure a blissful night's sleep. What better way to lull yourself to sleep than stargazing up through the solar-powered skylights counting the shooters?

This luxury self-catering beach hut in Whitsand Bay has spacious decking and enclosed private sloping gardens, perfect for catching the last rays of the Cornish sunshine. A clamber down the coastal path on your doorstep will land you on the long stretch of golden beach at Whitsand Bay..

Snuggled up by the woodburner with a glass of hearty red and an old romantic film playing quietly in the background, a relaxing first night at Seaglass will set the scene for your bliss-filled romantic getaway.

There is a luxury shower room with heated towel rail and freshwater glass mosaic tiled floor.

Stardust

Take two very special dwellings, add an awe-inspiring location, a dose of drama, and a sprinkling of magic, and the result will be the impeccable Stardust. Comprising a luxury boat house for sleeping and pampering, and a characterful shepherd's hut for cooking and cosy dining, this unique self-catering experience right on the shores of Loch Ewe in the dramatic

Western Highlands of Scotland will inspire lovebirds looking for a luxury romantic retreat with a difference (complete with bubbly hot tub!)

The ancient crofting town of Poolewe in Scotland harbours a beguiling history and unique spirit. Luxuriate loch-side in the smart boat house which is bedecked in the finest Harris Tweed fabrics, highland-inspired artefacts and luxury mod cons to ensure sublime comfort.

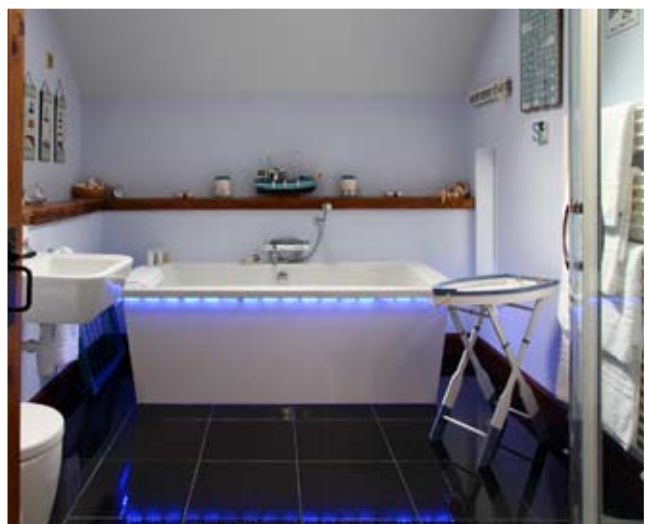

The vintage-inspired shepherd's hut is as cute as a button and will delight those who long for the simple innocence of halcyon days gone by.

A world away from the cobbled streets of Edinburgh and urban energy of Glasgow, Ross-shire is Scotland's wild frontier known as "the last great wilderness of Europe" and is the most remote region of the UK
