The stylish luxury interiors are inspired by the Cape Dutch elegance at this traditional thatched stone cottage which dates back to 1707. The property is superbly located to discover the beautiful Cape Winelands with its myriad of wineries and walks which, when coupled with the outdoor salt water swimming pool and spacious terraces, makes it a truly noteworthy and luxurious B&B for romantic getaways.

Climb the wooden feature staircase to the spacious boudoir high in the eaves, where a beautiful king-size double bed awaits swathed in the finest high thread count linens. Guests will be spoiled for choice with two bathrooms on the ground floor; one with jet bath and one with large walk-in rain shower. Both bedrooms benefit from imported allergy-free fine fibre pillows and the softest goose down duvets. A large private patio area offering breathtaking views of the mountain and forest vistas beyond. Set just away from the house, guests are invited to sit a while on the generous veranda, explore the 380 hectares of vineyard and wander down to the tranquil River Kromme.

Throw open the doors to your private patio overlooking the paddocks and distant forests, sink into the tempting sofas with a good book, indulge in a spa treatment or cool off in the salt water pool.

Idyllically positioned right on the water's edge with only the call of the gulls to disturb, this is truly as close as you get to the water without getting wet. In winter months cosy up on the high pile rug or recline in the marshmallow sofa as the fire from the log burner crackles and melts away the wild winter weather outside. And if you like this, you'll also love The Oyster Catcher.

The sumptuous king-size bed is adorned with superior goose down duvet, super-comfy pocket sprung mattress and crisp Egyptian linens. Handmade fully-lined French linen curtains ensure lazy lie-ins, despite the enchanting Cornish morning light. The cosy en-suite bathroom has a powerful shower, heated flooring and soft cotton towels.

There is a small shared courtyard area on access to the cottage. In summer months, throw open the windows and welcome the salty summer breezes in along with the sounds of the harbour. Wander into the town and experience the delights of a truly traditional working Cornish harbour town abuzz with beach and boat life, The Herringbone is in a very special location indeed.

Step outside your front door and take a mosey around the characterful harbour town of Mousehole. Take your pick from any one of the stunning beaches nearby and enjoy a good old fashioned day at the seaside complete with cucumber sandwiches and homemade pink lemonade.

THE STRAWBERRY PIP

Nr. Budapest, Vertes National Park, Hungary

This romantic luxury studio B&B for honeymooners is nestled on a private vineyard estate close to Budapest and is the ideal setting for lovebirds looking for a peaceful break away from it all. With decor plucked straight from the pages of a fairytale, the charmingly characterful touches at The Strawberry Pip will inspire and delight.

Peace and harmony reign at this romantic luxury B&B for two in Hungary's vineyard region. The small but well-equipped kitchen forms what was once the wine cellar, and is ideal for preparing breakfast at your leisure before retiring to bed for a lazy start to the day. Retire to your first floor boudoir either via the al fresco staircase or by climbing the ladder through the trapdoor for a blissful nights' sleep in the king-size marshmallow bed. Benefiting from a balcony overlooking the vineyard, deep rolltop bath and a quirky wine barrel shower, the first floor open plan master suite is a deliciously perfect relaxing retreat for two.

The sweet private garden is surrounded by vines and is the perfect place to relax with a glass of the local grape. A short walk away is the shared vineyard estate swimming pool with pool house. This British owned vineyard estate lies on the edge of the Vertes National Park, just west of Budapest in Fejer County, famous for its wines, horses, monasteries and Lake Balaton.

Long summer days are best spent poolside in the Hungarian sun with the bewitching scent of lavender all around. Dine al fresco on the terrace with a romantic candlelit dinner for two, or in winter months snuggle in front of the quirky wood-burner and talk into the wee hours. Snooze away summer afternoons in the hammock under a vine-covered terrace watching fluffy white clouds float through clear blue skies.
